- The Connection — This class of married couples and single people in their 20's and 30's offers Biblically based studies in a discussion format. They also enjoy getting together outside of class and participating regularly in outreach events. Meets in Fellowship Building, Room 5. Contact Jamie Thompson: 229-221-7800 or jthompson@tcsjackets.net.
- Christian Fellowship — a diverse group, made up of couples, singles, grandparents, retirees, those still working (many different backgrounds but all friends) who are active in outreach and who support one another through study and prayer. The lessons are taught by an inspirational team using the Cokesbury Adult Bible Studies. Meets in Portico, Room 2. Contact Richard Ramsey 229-226-6976 or rramsey2@rose.net.
- Lawson Neel — This class strives to learn of the faith, prepare for life adjustments, and make a difference in God's church and community through active service and fellowship. This is an active group of singles, couples, and widowed people, most of whom are retired. The International Lesson Series is used as the primary study material. Other resources are used as interests arise. Teachers are class members who desire to share their knowledge and experience through an open discussion environment. Meets in Portico, Room 1. Contact Wayne & Diane Newsome at dgncanvascreations@yahoo.com.
- Sue McTier — One of the oldest classes in the church, this class sponsors many mission and church projects. They use the International Lesson Series taught by class members and build their meeting time around worship, singing, teaching, and praying. They are also active in ministry to the shut-ins of the church. Meets in Portico, Room 3. Contact Bob Parrish: 229-228-9701 or rhp@rose.net.
- Focus — This class is composed of various ages and seeks to deepen relationships with the Lord through a variety of topics taught in a discussion-based format. Meets in Fellowship Building, Room 3. Contact Steve Smith: 229-379-5463 or stevesmithisalso@gmail.com.
- Women of Faith — a class for single and married women of all ages and stages of life. In class, we watch DVDs by some of the most popular Christian speakers of our time and discuss the material in the DVDs. Join us! Meets in Fellowship Building, Room 1.
